

August

Cataract Awareness Month

Proteins make up the lens in the eye. Over time these proteins may break down causing a cataract.

If you experience any of the symptoms below, make a visit to your doctor immediately.

Blurred Vision
Poor night vision
Constant glare in vision
Poor color in vision
Frequent changes in eye glass prescription

Sources:

<http://www.emedicinehealth.com>